Karen and Dean Dawson

Bethel Newswire, March 20, 2003 --

God is so very good to us. He sent Joe and Judy Robinson to Bethel Christian Retreat eight years ago and His work through them has multiplied the spirit of our Lord in so many ways throughout south central Jamaica. God has now presented Joe and Judy with new challenges and opportunities to serve Him elsewhere. We are sure that whatever God has in store for the Robinsons they will respond with the same Christian service that they provided while at Bethel. Our prayers and thanks go with them.

Now is a new day for Bethel. New directors are coming; they are Dean and Karen Dawson. God has led the Dawsons to Bethel and they have responded to that call. They are excited and enthralled with the opportunity to serve Him at Bethel. Dean and Karen have experience with "serving Jesus in Jamaica" and we welcome their love for the people of Jamaica. Pray with us that God, through Dean and Karen, will bring many souls to Christ as their savior and fill those souls with the desire to bring others to Him.
